Exclusive Mediterranean Apartment on the Seafront

Set within a characterful building dating back to the early 20th century, this charming apartment has been completely renovated, beautifully blending traditional architectural charm with the comfort and elegance of contemporary living.

The bright and inviting interiors are filled with natural light, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere throughout. Soft tones and carefully selected finishes enhance the property's Mediterranean character, offering a stylish home with a distinctive personality.

Situated on the seafront, the apartment enjoys views of the sea and the harbour, allowing you to experience the unique maritime atmosphere and the charm of coastal living right on your doorstep.

With an advertised surface area of 68 m², the property features a balcony, air conditioning and an alarm system. Its privileged frontline location makes it an appealing choice for those seeking a charming seaside residence or a property in a highly desirable setting.

The airport is less than 15 minutes away, providing excellent convenience for both year-round living and enjoying everything Ibiza has to offer throughout the seasons.
